

StATUSA PROMISE STATEMENT

As a StATUSA volunteer/staff member, I acknowledge and agree to uphold StATUSA's mission, vision, and core values as identified below and as they apply to my volunteer/staff duties and tasks:

StATUSA is rooted in a Christian Perspective to life and healing. However, we do not require that the people that we work with to be Christians or that they convert to Christianity during their time with us. We recognize that these individuals come from a variety of backgrounds, cultures, religions, races, and experiences.

Adopting a Christian perspective means that we believe that all life is sacred and that all people have worth and purpose to offer the world. Each person, no matter their past, should be treated with dignity and respect. Above all else we embrace unconditional love and grace. We also believe that God made each person beautifully unique. As such, we want to be sensitive to who each person is and her needs.

Mission:

Helping survivors of sexual exploitation in the U.S. heal, dream, and succeed.

Vision:

To see an end to sexual exploitation in the world.

Core Values:

Compassion: Creating a culture based on empathy, grace, and the unconditional love of Christ.

Dignity: Demonstrating respect to each individual we work with because we acknowledge that God has given every person purpose and worth to offer the world no matter their circumstances or past.

Hope: Recognizing that God loves all people and that He created each of us with the ability to find positive change and joy in our lives.

Collaboration: Establishing meaningful partnerships with survivors, families, and communities.

Education: Equipping others to take action against sex exploitation through Prevention, Awareness, Protection, and Impact efforts.
